HISTORY OF

So far as history records, Henry B. Virginia, was the first teacher to cross and the school taught in the Drinnen cabin of pioneer schools.

A few schools were established by the people "beyond the mountains", distance and the danger from the Indians. In the community established what we

FOREWORD

With great pride and sense of achievement on the part of the class of 1957, we have this annual to the task of recording precious hours of our high school days.

M. H. Brooks
Superintendent

A

All things must end, even your life. In many ways the last four years of high school is an excellent time to get the most from the friendships leaving the protective atmosphere decisions as to jobs, future education you make will probably affect the man to his youthful problems.

It is the nature of society for
